
the Wolf School

September 2017

School is cool

New school year off to great start

School should be a place where hopes and dreams come true! Thanks to your support, September has started off with excitement and anticipation for a fantastic year.

Now, students who once dreaded school can access the joys of learning. After the first week of school, one student told his parents that it had been "the best week of his life!"

See the results for yourself here.

Students in Room 3 share their hopes and dreams for the school year

Alumni lens on Wolf

Alumni makes film about Wolf

By supporting The Wolf School, you not only have an immediate impact on students' lives now, but you are also helping to create their future. Wolf alumni Michael McDonald, class of 2011, recently returned to Wolf - this time as a filmmaker. Inspired by his valuable experience at Wolf, Michael decided to make a film about The Wolf School for his final class project at New England Tech. Thank you, Michael, for sharing your wonderful film with us!

Check it out on The Wolf School Facebook page.

Michael McDonald turns to Wolf for the topic of his film project at New England Tech

Join us for our 3rd Annual Conference School Trauma and the Complex Learner: Identification & Intervention

What happens to a child's ability to learn after bullying, academic failure, or a traumatic experience? This and more will be explored at The Wolf School's 3rd Annual Complex Learners Conference with expert speakers Dr. Teresa May-Benson, Sc.D.,

OTR/L, FAOTA, Dr. Jennifer Jencks, Ph.D., and Dr. Karen Holler, Ph.D. Learn more and register here.

Contact

The Wolf School
215 Ferris Avenue, East Providence, RI 02916
401-432-9940

thewolfschool.org

Stay Connected

Mission

The Wolf School inspires Complex Learners to discover confidence, compassion, and a love of learning to unlock their full potential

Update preferences

Contact Director of Institutional Advancement, Marie Esposito, to update your mailing preferences