December 2017

With the holiday season comes the season of traveling. Whether by car or plane, read our tips to make travel easier.

Holiday Travel Tips Make travel enjoyable for your Complex Learners

Whether you're planning a week long stay or just a day trip, holiday traveling can be tricky with Complex Learners in tow. Here are some tips to ease those travel pains.

- Power up before you leave. Go to a park or engage in physical play inside before you get in the car. If it's been a long trip, Google playgrounds in the areas as you get close and schedule in some exercise before you descend on Grandma's. Continue reading...

Champlin
Grant!
Thank you!

We are thrilled to announce that thanks to an incredible grant from the Champlin Foundation, The Wolf School will be purchasing two 14 passenger Multi-Function School Activity buses! Wolf students learn best and are most successful when provided with hands-on experiential academic and social learning opportunities. These passenger buses will provide our students with a safer and more cost effective transportation to countless enrichment activities. These buses can be driven by someone who has a regular driving license, allowing teachers and staff to drive the vehicles for greater flexibility and access to community trips. Thank you to the Champlin Foundation for their incredible generosity!

Thank You!
